three decades ago conservative ideologues at the heritage foundation produced a primer on the reagan revolution entitled mandate for leadership which offered an overarching philosophy against the role of government and in favor of markets this volume produced by the institute for policy studies which since 1963 has been the nation s leading progressive policy organization offers a set of specific policy proposals for the incoming national administration on every major domestic and international topic written specifically for the book by a leading thinker and activist in the field these chapters set forth a fundamental badly needed mandate for change to reinvigorate government and rethink the role of markets and civil society each one includes an essay supporting the proposed policies and a resource list of relevant organizations websites and readings it is perfect for public policy courses at the undergraduate and graduate level in this clear and intelligent book thomas lines examines the role that global policies have played in creating a crisis of rural poverty he explains the mechanisms of markets and supply chains charting their impact on agricultural trade in the world s poorest countries a desperate situation is emerging which could soon leave little place for hundreds of millions of smallholders across the world as the global supply chains of giant food corporations and supermarkets swallow them up poor countries have become newly vulnerable to price changes for crops like rice and wheat and the situation is set to deteriorate further if global policies do not change the author argues that debates about world trade negotiations have only highlighted part of the problem we must turn our attention to wider economic policies the workings of the markets themselves and the division of power along the supply chains to establish a practical set of solutions combining analytical rigour with a clearly accessible examination of the key factors the author deftly points to the forms that these solutions could take
