10 day green smoothie cleanse purify your body with a simple green smoothie detox by definition green smoothies are a delicious blended drink made from fruit and leafy greens leafy greens as their name suggests are green leaves of edible plants a green smoothie is a thick beverage made from blended raw fruit or vegetables with other ingredients such as water ice dairy products or sweeteners these healthy green smoothies are made by blending raw leafy green vegetables with fruit in order to soften and sweeten the drink the most popular vegetables used in green smoothies are kale spinach swiss chard collard greens celery broccoli and parsley the consumption of raw leafy green vegetables as occurs when a person drinks green smoothies can bring at first a person feel great after adopting this habit particularly if he or she is coming off a highly processed nutrient poor diet blending the greens in a powerful blender causes to liquefying the greens far more thoroughly than we can by chewing this releases the nutrients from the cellulose which is indigestible and makes them more accessible to our digestive system digesting food creates free radicals therefore we have to be sure the food we eat has to be packed with antioxidants some examples of antioxidant rich foods are chia raw cacao blueberries strawberries beets red wine green tea and

pomegranates digestion isn't the only physiological source of free radicals exercise is too so there is an additional reason to eat sufficient amounts of antioxidants it is well known to all of us that if we want to stay healthy we should eat a lot of greens but many people don't like to eat greens even if you're one of the people who does like greens in order to get more nutritional and health benefits from the greens is to eat them raw and to chew them very thoroughly to shatter the cell and obtain the nutrients within but the amount of chewing required is so large that it makes it difficult green smoothies are a perfect solution for those issues the basic recipe for a green smoothie in order to make a green smoothie add 4 cups of water to your blender rinse the desired quantity of greens and remove any thick leaves or stems add greens to the blender put on the lid and blend starting on low and turning your blender up to high blend until completely smooth add bananas or mango depending on how thick you like your smoothies add other fruit and berries at taste removing pits cores and peels if necessary blend again until smooth it's ready start a full 10 day green smoothie cleanse with such recipes smoothies for weight loss green veggie drink mango smoothie slimming green smoothie blueberry smoothie berry oats smoothie chocolate peanut butter smoothie apple low carb smoothie orange weight loss smoothie detox green smoothies super green detox detox green smoothie berries smoothie pineapple spinach detox smoothie pear avocado smoothie papaya smoothie pear avocado smoothie with chia seeds and much more so scroll up and click the but now with 1 click to get started with your 10 day green smoothie cleanse for weight loss and healthier living if you have never tried a green smoothie cleanse before you are headed to a completely new level of wellness and energy it can be intimidating to pick up a glass that contains a thick green liquid and drink it down but the truth is that green smoothies don't taste all that different from pink orange red and yellow ones the main difference is one of nutrition and fiber rather than one of taste the green color in these smoothies comes from chlorophyll you probably learned in middle school that this is the color that helps plants conduct photosynthesis it is also this color that connects on a molecular level with the toxins in your system and pulls them out one at a time at first the removal of these toxins will produce a reaction of nausea fatigue and pain but as these chemicals leave your body you will feel better think of a series of pipes that are clogged with gunk and goo those are your intestines operating on the western diet with a green smoothie cleanse you're cleaning your system out and the energy you feel will become addicting the first seven day cleanse that you go through will show you how radically an alteration in your diet will improve your life on a number of levels it is the next series of cleanses that you go through that will convince you that healthy eating is the best way to live
